		Commodities regulation REGULATIONS MADE BY THE COUNCIL PURSUANT TO SECTION 27(7b) OF THE ACT PRESCRIBING THE PROCEDURE FOR DETERMINING APPLICATIONS	Retain
		All types of commodities, which are not prohibited by the London Local Authorities Act 1990 (as amended) Food Safety Act 1990, Consumer Protection Act 1987, or the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, are eligible to be licensed in Camdens markets	Amended	i	All types of commodities, which are not prohibited by the London Local Authorities Act 1990 (as amended) Food Safety Act 1990, Consumer Protection Act 1987, or the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, Copyright Design and Patents Act 1988, Trade Descriptions Act 1968, Trademarks Act 1994, Video Recordings Act 1984, The Consumer Protection Act 1987, The General Product Safety Regulations 2005, Toys (Safety) Regulations 2011, The Cosmetic Products Enforcement Regulations 2011 or other applicable Trading Standards legislation
		ii. Commodities are divided into categories: Licence holders may trade up to three commodities from one category on their street trading Licence (Existing traders will retain their current commodities but should a request for commodity variation be made, they will comply with this regulation. Only the licensed commodities must be displayed or offered for sale.	Amended	ii	Commodities are divided into categories: Licence holders may trade up 2 categories on their street trading Licence (Existing traders will retain their current commodities but should a request for commodity variation be made, they will comply with this regulation. Only the licensed commodities must be displayed or offered for sale
			New	iii	Commodities are traded under the four-pitch rule. The four-pitch rule requires that there is separation of a minimum of four clear pitches in either direction, between traders selling the same commodities. These commodity regulations are applied during consideration of all new Licence grants, requests for pitch transfers and requests for commodity variation and also when allocating pitches for temporary daily (casual) street trading Licences
			New	iv	iv. Licence holders must apply to the licensing authority, clearly stating the nature of the proposed good(s) and proposed method of selling and for food application (method of cooking) either at the stage of first application or for any subsequent change to the goods and services sold on the stall. Applications will be granted subject the criteria below. Fees and charges apply. (a) Where the market, street or area is subject to a development strategy that details specific controls on the goods sold within the market. (b) The goods are classed as prohibited (see Appendix D). (c) The goods or method of sale applied for may cause or contribute to covenant breaches for landowners or an unacceptable degree of nuisance including cooking odours, smoke, noise, litter and additional cleansing requirements. (d) The goods applied for may cause or contribute to crime and disorder. (e) An upheld complaint or complaints have been received by the Market Team about the sale of the same or similar goods (f) he goods on sale on neighbouring pitches and the suitability of the proposed goods in relation to these (g) The goods on sale at neighbouring retail outlets and the suitability of the proposed goods in relation to these. (h) Selling the right goods.
			New	v	The Market will maintain information about the goods and services currently licensed for each market and isolated pitch. This information will be made available for traders and potential traders to help them make an informed decision about which goods and services may be viable and which market or pitch is suitable for them. It will also be used to help manage licensed pitches and the goods they sell.
		iii. All requests for Commodities will be considered by an officer panel on a case by case basis where it is outside of this regulation.	Retain	vi

		iv. The licensed commodities must be specified, on the trader's Licence / Pitch Card, which must be displayed on the stall at all times	Retain	vii
		v. Commodities rules apply to both permanent licence holders and casual traders.	Retain	viii
			New	ix	The council may vary street trading license in order to promote any development strategy which may be in place. This may involve adding to or amending the list of prohibited goods. This may also involve the making of specifying resolutions in respect of isolated pitches where this is considered appropriate
		NOTE: Seasonal event commodities (e.g. Christmas trees) will not be one of the commodities on the regular licence, but can be added for a period of 6 weeks on grant of a temporary street trading licence, upon receipt of a written request to the Council	Retain
