FIFTY YEARS OF THE ICONIC CAMDEN MARKET

Events Guide, Maps & Kids Activities

A THREE MONTH FESTIVAL
OF DIVERSE MUSIC, ART,
DANCE, FOOD AND FASHION
FROM AROUND THE WORLD
IN CELEBRATION OF
CAMDEN MARKET'S PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE.

CAMDEN MARKET IS LONDON'S MOST ICONIC MARKET; A MELTING POT OF MUSIC, FASHION, FOOD AND UNIQUE EXPERIENCES ACROSS THREE QUARTERS, STABLES, LOCK AND HAWLEY WHARF.

Our story started in 1974, with just 16 stalls next to the Regent's Canal in Dingwalls Yard. Through the 1970s, 80s, 90s and 00s, Camden Market has been the place to go for everyone from trendsetters to mould-breakers. Today, five decades later, we are a home to over 1000 independent traders, unique shops, vibrant visitors and loyal locals that make up the fabric of Camden.

This festival of music, dance, art, culture and community not only marks 50 years of Camden Market, but celebrates the people who make the market what it is today, and represent everything it will continue to be in the future.

CAMDEN MARKET REMEMBERS AMY WINEHOUSE

In 2014, the Amy Winehouse statue was unveiled in its new home, Camden Market Stables.

Created by sculptor Scott Eaton, the statue depicts Amy with her recognisable beehive and high heels, designed to show “attitude and strength, but also give subtle hints of insecurity”, said Eaton.

The late Barbara Windsor, actress and friend of Amy, unveiled the statue in the presence of Amy’s parents Mitch and Janis Winehouse on 14th September 2014, what would have been Amy’s 31st birthday. “Amy loved Camden with a passion and Camden loved her” said Windsor, “so it’s only right her presence should remain here.”

NEW MURAL TO BE UNVEILED AT CAMDEN MARKET HAWLEY WHARF

Site for the new mural at The Quay, Camden Market Hawley Wharf

Camden is a place with creativity at its heart, so to mark this important milestone, it felt only right that we commission a one-of-a-kind mural to show the vibrant past, present and future of the market.

Working with renowned artist David Shillinglaw and a group of local emerging talents, the mural is inspired by five decades of Camden Market; the history, music, landmarks and people that have been part of our story since the very beginning.

The design has been developed in collaboration with creative street advertising specialists BUILDHOLLYWOOD to represent the communities and cultures that come together to make Camden what it is today.

BUILDHOLLYWOOD™
DIABOLICAL JACK JACKARTS

The team at BUILDHOLLYWOOD said "We are excited to be collaborating with Camden Market to create a vibrant mural to celebrate their 50 years. Inspired by the heart and soul of Camden Market, the mural will showcase its rich history, its lively, and alternative charm, which has added so much colour and energy to the cultural scene in London. We can't wait to unveil it at Hawley Wharf!"

A CELEBRATION OF CAMDEN'S CULTURES

ABDUL HAI,
DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY RELATIONS AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

“ Camden Market is a distinctive destination and a local market that embraces people from all backgrounds. Over the years it has grown into one of London’s key hubs for entrepreneurs, creativity, music, and artistic expression. This is a truly special place that many people hold dear, have fond memories of and want the best for.

A UNIQUE PLACE

“ It’s incredibly rewarding to see Camden Market’s people having their moment, and it’s exciting to anticipate the future that lies ahead, with a brand new park in the sky, the Camden High Line, and Camden Market’s very own temporary observation wheel taking a spot in West Yard.

“ This programme of events, activities, and performances has been crafted to celebrate Camden’s cultural diversity and to give back to the communities we live and work alongside. This marks the beginning of an exciting series of activities, with more to come in autumn 2024.”

GETTING HERE

By Foot or by Bicycle
 Camden Market Lock and Hawley Wharf are both directly accessible from the Regent's Canal towpath. Chalk Farm Road has a cycle path and there are bicycle parking spots in Hawley Wharf.

By Bus
 Camden Market Lock is served by TfL buses 1, 24, 27, 21. There are several routes and stops around Camden.

By Underground
 Camden Town station is closest to Camden Market, Chalk Farm can be slightly quieter and is also only a few minutes walk. Camden Road Overground is the closest accessible station.

By National Rail
 The closest national rail station to Camden Market is Euston – a short Underground or bus ride away or 24 minute walk.

MARKET FACILITIES

Accessible Toilets
 Accessible toilets are available in Stables Basement, Stables and in several locations in Waterside Halls, Hawley Wharf. The public toilet facilities in the market may require a small entry charge.

Accessible Changing Place
 Hawley Wharf is equipped with an accessible Changing Places facility, found on Level -1 of Waterside Halls West, which can be reached via lift.

Step Free Access
 Hawley Wharf has step-free access and lifts to all floors. Much of Stables and Lock is step-free, however due to the historic listed buildings and cobbles, it can be harder to navigate with uneven floors.

Toilets
 Public toilet facilities are available across Camden Market Lock, Stables and Hawley Wharf. They may require a small entry charge.

MEET THE LOCALS

MILDREDS CAMDEN

On Jamestown Road, tucked away from the hustle and bustle of Camden's High Street, you'll find Mildreds – and you'll be so pleased you did. This internationally-inspired vegan restaurant was opened in Soho in 1988, with the sole ambition to serve delicious vegetarian food. It has been home to incredible food in Camden for the last eight years, and in 2021, Mildreds went fully plant-based, with a vibrant menu of adventurous dishes that just happen to be vegan.

Mildreds recently launched their spring menu, an array of dishes inspired by the season. Highlights include a southern fried plant chick+n burger with hot mango pepper glaze, kimchi fried rice bokkeumbap with salt and pepper tofu, plus sweet treats like rum coconut sticky toffee pudding and banana biscoff pancakes.

Head to Mildreds Camden for brunch, served daily until 3pm (bottomless available on weekends!). On weekdays you can enjoy their £8 Camden Cocktail Club, 12–6pm, or the Prix Fixe from 12–6pm, serving two courses for £18 or three courses for £22.

Camden Market 50th Anniversary Events Schedule

1 attachments (83 KB)
Events schedule.pdf;

Hi all,

I just wanted to alert you to the program of events we have lined up to celebrate our 50th Anniversary. All the events are free, family friendly and finish very early in the evening.

We will be applying for TENs on some events where we require a mobile bar (courtesy of 3 Lock Brewery) in Market Place for instance. We will be applying for TENs where there is regulated entertainment, for instance performance of dance (Slainte in the sunshine, evening of impact Dance or Bollywood) or a DJ event in the amphitheater - Summer Jams.

For all our unamplified choir events (Sunday Voices) music events we believe we will fall under the live music act as they are all under 500 capacity, and between the hours of 08:00-23:00. We will not be applying for TENs unless otherwise informed by the licensing authority to do so.

We will of course take care and attention to ensure we do not cause a nuisance and are meeting with TRACT and hyper-local residents associations tomorrow to tell them our plans and give them a direct line of communication should they wish to complain. We are hopeful they may even wish to attend some events themselves. We will be clear that we are going to be making a bit of noise but it will be managed and at reasonable times of the day.

Below is a link to our site for the whole story and how we intend to celebrate. I also attach our specific Events Round up so you have a clear picture of what is occurring and when. We will submit TENs later today or tomorrow, please feel free to contact me to discuss anything.

Can I introduce, if an introduction is necessary a new addition to our team [REDACTED] [REDACTED] is producing all our events which I hope should give you confidence that the events will be both high quality and compliant.

Finally, you are of course all welcome to attend. We hope to see you all sometime across the summer events.

Kind regards

Liam

Subject: Hawley Wharf public realm premise licence- new premises licence application

Hi All,

Following from our meeting last week please find attached a draft of our application which was submitted yesterday. We will host 2 meetings in the 28-day consultation at Dockray Place dates tbc as well as further elaborate at our monthly meeting.

If you would like another meeting if the three dates, we put forward don't work for you please let me know. Thomas and Thomas are instructed to act on our behalf after extensive pre application with the licensing authority. If you have questions, please reach out to Jack Spiegler cc'd here.

Kind regards

Liam

Hawley Wharf – Market Place New Premises Licence Application

Information Events:

Session 1 Date & Time: Saturday, 26th October 12pm – 2pm

Session 2 Date & Time: Thursday, 29th October 7pm – 9pm

Location: Labs Dockray, 1-7 Dockray Place NW1 8QH

Dear Resident,

Camden Market's Arts and Cultural programme is deeply rooted in our commitment to celebrating cultural diversity, serving as a vital platform to highlight the unique appeal of Camden Market to both community groups and visitors. Following the success of recent cultural events held in celebration of Camden Market's 50th anniversary, LabTech has applied for a new premises licence for the Market Place at Hawley Wharf. This vibrant square is home to popular businesses such as Gail's, Camden Coffee Roastery, and Babylon Park.

The application, if successful, will allow LabTech to further develop a programme of events for Camden Market and Hawley Wharf that will be free of charge and family friendly. These events will take place during reasonable hours (concluding in the early evening) and will celebrate Camden's rich cultural diversity, whilst supporting local, young talent by giving an outlet to perform and express themselves on a local stage with international profile.

None of this would be possible without LabTech's dedicated team of event planners, security, facilities managers, and coordinators who are committed to keeping Hawley Wharf a safe and welcoming destination for all.

We have also been in pre application consultation with the Licensing Authority and have agreed a comprehensive set of conditions to ensure we promote the prevention of crime and disorder, nuisance, public safety and protection of children from harm.

If you would like to know more about the application and how we propose to run events in Camden Market and Hawley Wharf, please attend one of the above meetings. To R.S.V.P, please email:

[REDACTED]

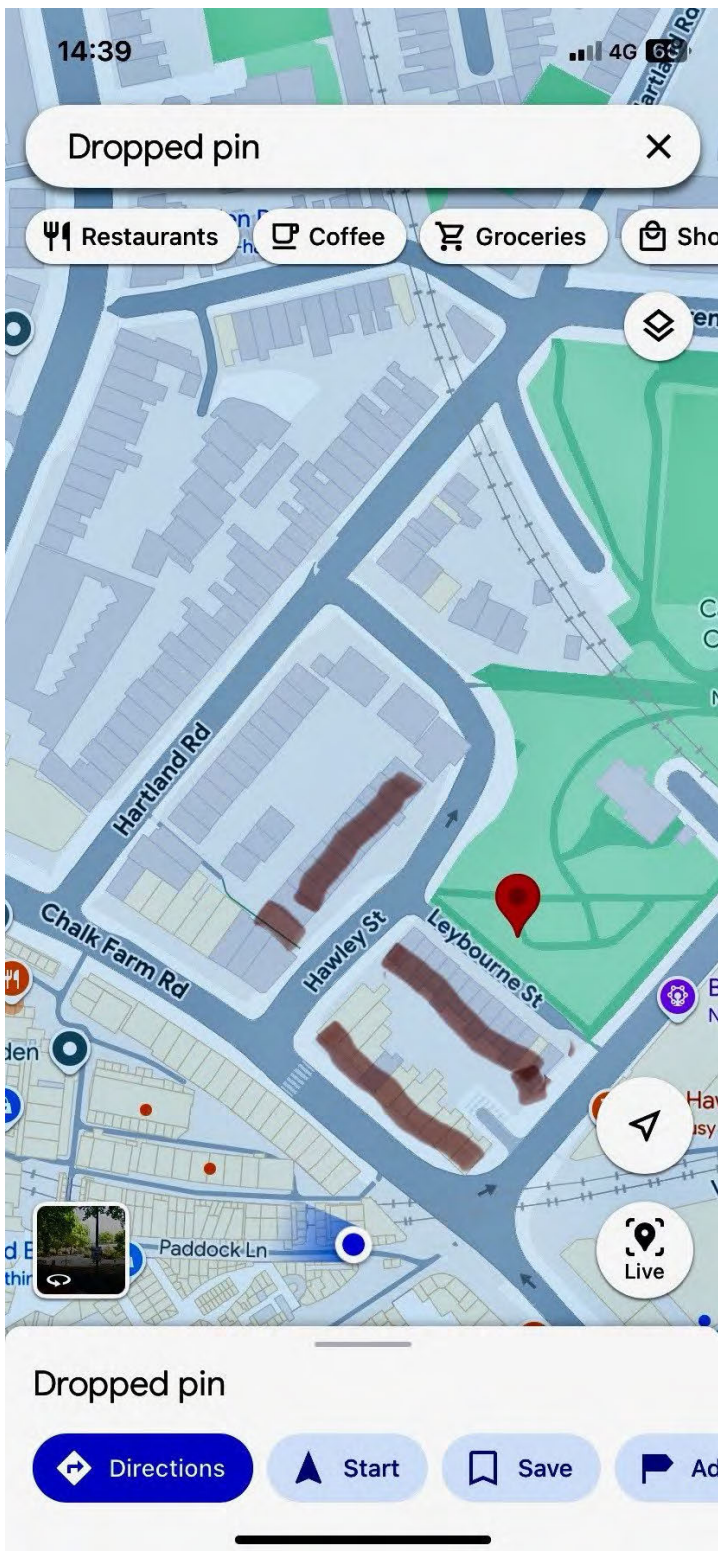

If you are unable to attend one of these meetings, please contact Liam to schedule an online meeting.

To stay informed about upcoming events in Hawley Wharf and Camden Market, please subscribe to the newsletter here.

I look forward to seeing you soon,

Dear [REDACTED]

I hope you had a good rest of summer. I wanted to draw your attention to our next cultural event which like the rest are free of charge, family friendly and finishing early. This event is the Mexican day of the dead which is great fun for all the family. The marketplace will have all the main activities across the day as well as music, song and dance.

We will of course be managing sound so it does not reach nuisance level but there will be some noise created in the course of the day. Please do share this as an invitation to your and your local resident group and get in contact if you want to know more.

Kind regards

Liam
