Dear Sir/Madam

RE: Application TEN\132805

Elysee Restaurant, 13 Percy Street, W1T 1DP

With reference to the above Application, the Metropolitan Police Service (MPS) wishes to make a Representation.

The MPS believe that this application will not uphold the licensing objectives, in particular the prevention of crime and disorder and public safety objectives.

The applicant has applied for the following dates and times.	Event Start/End Times
Date of Event
17/12/2025	00:00-04:00
18/12/2025	00:00-04:00
19/12/2025	00:00-04:00
20/12/2025	00:00-04:00
21/12/2025	00:00-04:00

The venue, 13 Percy Street, is located on a narrow one-way street that connects through to Tottenham Court Road. It has both residential and commercial properties with an active resident's association. It is an area that occasionally generates issues around anti-social behaviour and parking concerns due to the narrow road.

Over the past three years, Camden Police Licensing Team has been required to work extensively with this venue due to ongoing concerns relating to serious crime. This has involved numerous meetings with the premises management and also multiple hearings, one of which resulted in the revocation of the premises licence. The venue were later granted their licence back after a considerable amount of additional conditions were added to the premises licence and the hours of licensable activities were largely reduced. These actions were taken in response to incidents of serious crime occurring inside the venue and repeated failures by the management to adequately uphold the licensing objectives. Despite continued engagement, the venue has demonstrated a pattern of non-compliance and an inability to effectively manage risk associated with late-night licensable activity.

I am currently in the process of engagement and possible enforcement action with this venue. I have arranged a meeting with one of the directors, scheduled for 10th December, to address the Police's ongoing concerns. A further meeting with the wider venue management team and Police will follow to discuss possible enforcement measures in relation to a significant number of breaches of the premises licence as well as the venue operating outside of the licensing hours.

The recent breaches to the venues premises licence include;

24. Police must be called to incidents of violence and/or disorder.

25. An incident log shall be kept at the premises and made available on request to an authorised officer or the Police

75. Door supervisors are to use body worn cameras. In the event of an incident, the footage must be made available to Police upon request. The venue will ensure that a suitable, expeditious playback/ downloading system is in place for Police to be able to obtain any evidential footage.

76. Recordings of body worn footage shall be retained for a period of 31 days; and be available for inspection by the Police or Local Authority upon request.

82. The CCTV system shall be maintained in good working order and at all times the premises is open to the public, be fully operational covering both internal and external areas of the premises to which the public have access.

86. The medium on which CCTV images are recorded shall be of evidential quality; stored securely; shall be retained for a period of 31 days; and be available for inspection by the Police or Local Authority upon request.

88. Copies shall be made available within 48 hours to the Police or an authorised officer of the Licensing Authority, upon request.

91. If the CCTV is inoperative or not installed and working to the satisfaction of the Police, then within 48 hours the Police shall be notified and an estimate given of the repair timescale. The premises shall comply with all reasonable requests from the Police.

Conclusion

Given that this engagement and enforcement process is only just underway, the Police consider it inappropriate for Temporary Event Notices to be granted at this stage. Therefore, the Police wish to reject the TEN applications in their entirety while these discussions are ongoing.

Section 1: Background comments of the Head of Legal Services

- 1.1 Members should only address those matters that have formed the subject matter of the objection notice. Matters that arise that are not the subject of the objection notice fall outside the function that the Panel is exercising when it holds a hearing
- 1.2 Members must determine, having regard for the evidence, whether not giving a counter notice will impact adversely on crime and disorder licensing objective.
- 1.3 In accordance with the provisions of Part 3 of Schedule 5 of the Act, where a Licensing Authority gives a counter notice, the premises user may appeal against the decision, to a magistrate's court within 21 days of being notified of the decision.
- 1.4 Similarly, the Police may appeal against a decision not to give the premises user a counter notice. Any such appeal must be made to a magistrates court within 21 days of being notified of the decision.
- 1.5 The Human Rights Act 1998 incorporates the key articles of the European Convention on Human Rights into domestic law. Decisions on licensing matters are actions of a public authority and must be compatible with Convention rights. Consequently Members of the Panel must be aware of the rights contained in the Convention (particularly those set out below) when making licensing decisions.

(a) Article 6: Right to a fair trial

In the determination of his civil rights and obligations, everyone is entitled to a fair and public hearing within a reasonable time by an independent and impartial tribunal established by law.

(b) Article 8: Right to respect for private and family life

Everyone has a right to respect for his or her private life, his home and correspondence.

(c) Article 1 of the First Protocol: Protection of property

Every natural or legal person is entitled to the peaceful enjoyment of his possessions, including a licence. No one shall be deprived of his possessions except in the public interest and subject to the conditions provided for by law and by the general principles of international law.

(d) Article 10: Freedom of Expression

Everyone has the right to freedom of expression. This right shall include freedom to hold opinions and to receive and impart information and ideas without interference by public authority and regardless of frontiers. This Article shall not prevent States from requiring the licensing of broadcasting, television or cinema enterprises.

The exercise of these freedoms since it carries with it duties and responsibilities may be subject to such formalities, conditions, restrictions or penalties as are prescribed by law and are necessary in a democratic society, in the interests of national security, territorial integrity or public safety, for the prevention of disorder or crime, for the protection of health and morals, for the protection of the reputation or rights of others, for preventing the disclosure of information received in confidence, or for maintaining the authority and impartiality of the judiciary.

(e) Article 14: Prohibition of discrimination

The enjoyment of the rights and freedoms set forth in this Convention shall be secured without discrimination on any ground such as sex, race, colour, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, association with a national minority, property, birth, or other status.
