Appendices (if any)	1. Revisions to Appointments

1. Executive Summary

This report highlights revisions to appointments to Committees, Boards and Other Bodies.

2. Recommendations

For the reasons set out in the report, it is recommended that Full Council:

- 2.1 Receive and approve revisions to appointments to committees, boards and other bodies established by the Council, as set out in Appendix A.
- 2.2 That subject to 2.1 above, the nominations received be approved and appointed to those bodies with immediate effect.

3. Proposals – Reasons for the recommendations

- 3.1 The Council's Constitution sets out the executive, scrutiny and constitutional functions and the rules and procedures for how the Council operates, it also prescribes the issues that the Council should address at its Annual Meeting in identifying the person(s) or bodies it wishes to carry out its functions as a local authority and the portfolios and terms of reference for those persons and bodies.

4. Alternative Options Considered

- 4.1 There is no alternative option. Appointment of elected members to committees and other/outside bodies and revisions to constitution of a committee can only be made by full Council.

5. Consultation

5.1 No consultation required.

6. Financial Implications

6.1 There are no direct resource implications.

7. Legal and Governance Implications

Council can determine the making of non-executive appointments to committees and other fora. Council is under a legal and constitutional obligation to make appointments to its committees, boards and other fora to ensure the effective operation of the Council's functions and other obligations, duties and responsibilities.

8. Risks

8.1 There are no risks arising directly from this report.

9. Equality and Diversity Implications (including the public sector equality duty)

9.1 An equality impact assessment is not required.

10. Other Relevant Implications

10.1 There are no other implications arising directly from this report.

11. Background Documents

11.1 No background documents.

12. How does this deliver the objectives of the Strategic Themes?

12.1 The Council's decision-making structures are designed to support the delivery of Sandwell's Council Plan.
