a) General – all four licensing objectives (b, c, d and e) (please read guidance note 10)

The premises will be operated in a responsible and professional manner with the primary focus on providing high-quality meals and a safe, enjoyable dining experience. Alcohol sales will be ancillary to food service, and the management will ensure that all staff are trained in their responsibilities under the Licensing Act 2003.

Comprehensive operating procedures will be in place covering staff training, incident management, and regular safety checks to uphold all four licensing objectives:

The prevention of crime and disorder

Public safety

The prevention of public nuisance

The protection of children from harm

All staff will receive induction and refresher training on these principles, with records maintained and available for inspection by responsible authorities. The premises will work in cooperation with local authorities, police, and community safety partnerships to ensure ongoing compliance and excellence in this area.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

CCTV will operate at all times with footage kept for 31 days. Staff will challenge disorderly behaviour and refuse service to intoxicated persons. A zero-tolerance policy toward drugs or antisocial conduct will be enforced.

c) Public safety

All fire safety equipment will be maintained and regularly tested. Exits will be kept clear, and capacity limits observed. Staff will be trained in emergency procedures and first aid availability.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Signage will remind customers to leave quietly. Waste will be managed to avoid odour and disturbance. Music levels will be kept low and windows/doors closed during evening hours to minimise noise.

e) The protection of children from harm

Challenge 25 policy will be in place for alcohol sales. Children will be supervised at all times, and no alcohol will be served without a responsible adult present. Staff will receive safeguarding training.

14. This is the address which we shall use to correspond with you about this application.
15. Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be issued to an individual or an individual in a partnership which is not a limited liability partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have the right to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

They do this in one of two ways:

- 1) by providing with this application, copies or scanned copies of the documents which an applicant has provided, to demonstrate their entitlement to work in the UK (which do not need to be certified) as per information published on gov.uk and in guidance.
- 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Home Office online right to work checking service.

As an alternative to providing a copy of original documents, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth, will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be shared digitally. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copies of documents as set out above.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.
