- 1.3 The occupancy of any particular room does not exceed the occupancy limit specified in the licence
- 1.4 Only rooms that are listed as having a maximum occupancy of greater than zero may be used as living accommodation

- 1.5 The Licence Holder shall provide the Authority, within 21 days of receiving a written notice, with such of the following particulars as may be specified in the notice with respect to the occupancy of the property.
The names, ages and numbers of individuals / households accommodated in the HMO specifying which rooms they occupy within the HMO; and
The number of individuals in each household.
- 1.6 The licence holder must ensure that rooms other than bedrooms are not used for sleeping purposes and that occupation of bedrooms does not exceed the maximum number as stated in the licence

2. Provision of licence to occupiers

- 2.1 The Licence Holder must provide a written copy of this licence and all licence conditions to all occupants of the property within 14 days of the issuance of the licence.
- 2.2 The Licence Holder must provide a written copy of this licence and all licence conditions to any new occupants prior to the commencement of any new period of occupation.

3. Gas safety certificate

- 3.1 If gas is supplied to the property, the Licence Holder must provide annually to the Council a valid CP12 Gas Safety Certificate issued by a Gas Safe registered engineer dated within the last 12 months.
- 3.2 The Licence Holder must annually provide a copy of each new Gas Safety Certificate to the Council within 14 days of the new certificate being issued.
- 3.3 The Licence Holder must display a copy of the current Gas Safety Certificate in the common parts of the property where it can be viewed by all occupiers. Where a new certificate has been issued, it must be displayed in the common parts of the property within 14 days of its issuance.

4. Electrical appliances

- 4.1 The Licence Holder must ensure that all electrical appliances provided at the HMO are kept in repair, in proper working order and in a safe condition.
- 4.2 The Licence Holder must obtain a Portable Appliance Test (PAT) report every 12 months in respect of all electrical appliances that are provided at the HMO. Any appliances with identified defects must be replaced as soon as practicable. A written record of these tests must be retained by the Licence Holder for the full duration of the licence period and provided to the Council within 14 days of demand.
- 4.3 A declaration from the Licence Holder regarding the safety of any electrical appliances must be provided to the Council within 14 days of demand.

5. Furniture

- 5.1 The Licence Holder must ensure that furniture made available in the HMO is kept in a safe condition.
- 5.2 All upholstered furniture, including but not limited to covers and fillings of cushions and pillows, sofas, children's furniture, beds, upholstered head boards, and mattresses, must comply with all current fire safety legislation.
- 5.3 A declaration as to the safety of all furniture made available in the HMO must be provided to the Council within 14 days of demand.

6. Electrical installation

- 6.1 The Licence Holder must ensure that every electrical installation in the house is in proper working order and safe for continued use.
- 6.2 The Licence Holder must ensure that at all points throughout the entire licence period there is a valid Electrical Installation Condition Report (EICR) in respect of every electric installation. The Licence Holder must ensure that copies of all valid EICRs throughout the licence period are retained and provided to the Council within 7 days of demand.
- 6.3 A declaration from the Licence Holder regarding the safety of any electrical installations must be provided to the Council within 14 days of demand.

7. Smoke alarms

- 7.1 The licence holder must ensure that appropriate fire alarm equipment is installed, of such type, number and location as considered necessary as specified in the licence conditions.
- 7.2 The Licence Holder must, as a minimum (see 7.1 above) ensure that hard-wired, mains-operated smoke alarms with battery backups in accordance with the latest British Standard (BS) are installed on each floor of the property on which there is at least one room used wholly or partly for living accommodation. For clarity, this includes staircases, landings, lavatories, bathrooms, and half-landings.
- 7.3 The Licence Holder must ensure that every smoke alarm made available in the property is kept in proper working order throughout the full duration of the licence period.
- 7.4 The Licence Holder must ensure that each alarm is tested at least once each month for the full duration of any occupancy of the HMO. Written records of these tests must be retained for the full duration of the licence period and be provided to the Council within 14 days of demand.
- 7.5 The Licence Holder must provide the Council with a declaration regarding the condition and positioning of each smoke alarm within 14 days of demand.

8. Carbon monoxide alarms

- 8.1 The Licence Holder must ensure that a carbon monoxide alarm is installed (following the product specific manufacturer's instructions) in every room in the house which is used wholly or partly as living accommodation and contains a fixed combustion appliance other than a gas cooker.
- 8.2 The Licence Holder must ensure that every carbon monoxide alarm made available in the property is kept in proper working order at all times.
- 8.3 The Licence Holder must ensure that each alarm is tested at least once each month for the full duration of any occupancy of the HMO. Written records of these inspections must be retained for the full duration of the licence period and be provided to the Council within 14 days of demand.
- 8.4 The Licence Holder must provide the Council with a declaration regarding the condition and positioning of each carbon monoxide alarm within 14 days of demand.

9. Written statement of terms

- 9.1 The Licence Holder must ensure that all occupants who were occupying the premises prior to the issuance of this licence have been supplied with a written document incorporating all the terms on which they occupy the property within 14 days of the issuance of this licence.
- 9.2 The Licence Holder must provide any new occupiers of the house with a written statement of terms on which they occupy it in writing prior to the commencement of any occupancy agreement.
- 9.3 The tenant's terms must include reference to the entitlement to receive 24 hours' notice, in writing, of the licence holder's/property manager's/agent's intention to enter the property, or areas of the property, to which he/she or staff do not normally have access, for the purpose of carrying out maintenance, repairs, or an inspection. (This does not restrict emergency access).
Routine access for other purposes, such as cleaning, or to provide care, must be dealt with separately in the agreement, where appropriate.
- 9.4 The Licence Holder must retain the written statements of terms and clear evidence of providing the written statements of terms to all occupants throughout each occupiers' period of occupation and for a minimum of five months after the occupation has ended. The Licence Holder must provide to the Council the written statement of terms on which the property is occupied and evidence of the provision of the written statement of terms to occupants within 14 days of demand.

10. Minimum floor space requirements

10.1 The Licence Holder must ensure that all the following requirements are met throughout the full duration of the licence period:

- that the floor area of any room in the HMO used as sleeping accommodation by one person aged over 10 years is not less than 6.51 square metres;
- that the floor area of any room in the HMO used as sleeping accommodation by two persons aged over 10 years is not less than 10.22 square metres;
- that the floor area of any room in the HMO used as sleeping accommodation by one person aged under 10 years is not less than 4.64 square metres;
- that any room in the HMO with a floor area of less than 4.64 square metres is not used as sleeping accommodation.

10.2 For the purposes of this condition a room is used as sleeping accommodation if it is normally used as a bedroom, whether or not it is also used for other purposes.

Any part of the floor area of a room in relation to which the height of the ceiling is less than 1.5 metres is not to be taken into account in determining the floor area of that room for the purposes of this condition.

10.3 The Licence Holder must ensure that any works directed in a notice given by the Council are completed within any timeframe provided where the Council is notifying the Licence Holder of having unknowingly breached any part of this condition. If no timeframe is provided, the works must be completed within 12 months of the date specified in the notice.

11. Mandatory conditions relating to children and timeframe for works

11.1 The Licence Holder must ensure that all the following requirements are met throughout the full duration of the licence period:

- where any room in the HMO is used as sleeping accommodation by persons aged over 10 years only, it is not used as such by more than the maximum number of persons aged over 10 years specified in the licence;
- where any room in the HMO is used as sleeping accommodation by persons aged under 10 years only, it is not used as such by more than the maximum number of persons aged under 10 years specified in the licence;
- where any room in the HMO is used as sleeping accommodation by persons aged over 10 years and persons aged under 10 years, it is not used as such by more than the maximum number of persons aged over 10 years specified in the licence and the maximum number of persons aged under 10 years so specified.

11.2 The Licence Holder must ensure that any works directed in a notice given by the Council are completed within any timeframe provided where the Council is notifying the Licence Holder of having unknowingly breached any part of this condition. If no timeframe is provided, the works must be completed within 12 months of the date specified in the notice.

12. Household waste

- 12.1 The Licence Holder must comply with any scheme which is provided by the Council which relates to the storage and disposal of household waste at the HMO pending collection.
- 12.2 The Licence Holder must display in the common parts accessible to all occupants accurate information regarding the refuse and recycling collection dates in addition to information on what items to put in each recycling and waste container within 14 days of the issuance of this licence. This information must also be provided to any new occupant prior to the commencement of their period of occupation. Evidence of the provision of this information to occupants must be retained throughout the length of the licence period and provided to the Council within 14 days following demand.
- 12.3 The Licence Holder must display in the common parts accessible to all occupants' accurate information regarding bulky waste collections within 14 days of the issuance of this licence. This information must also be provided to any new occupant prior to the commencement of their period of occupation. Evidence of the provision of this information to occupants must be retained throughout the length of the licence period and provided to the Council within 14 days following demand.
- 12.4 The Licence Holder must undertake inspections at intervals no longer than every three months to ensure waste is being stored and presented correctly. A record of inspections must be retained for the full duration of the licence period and provided to the Council within 14 days of demand.

13. Inspections

- 13.1 The Licence Holder must ensure that the common parts are thoroughly inspected at intervals of no greater than three months, and the living accommodation is thoroughly inspected at intervals of no greater than six months. The Licence Holder must ensure that detailed notes from every inspection in the licence period, including but not limited to; any defects identified; the date and time of the inspection; and the individual undertaking the inspection are made and retained throughout the full length of the licence period.
- 13.2 The Licence Holder must provide all inspection notes from within the entirety of the licence period as demanded by the Council within 14 days of demand.

14. Antisocial behaviour provisions

14.1 The Licence Holder must ensure that they comply with the following procedure where they have been made aware of the occurrence of anti-social behaviour on the premises.

This procedure must be provided to occupiers in writing prior to the commencement of their occupancy or within 14 days of an occupancy in existence at the time that the licence was issued. Proof of provision of this must be retained throughout the full length of the individual's period of occupation and for 5 months afterwards and provided to the Council within 14 days of demand.

14.2 The Licence Holder must reasonably cooperate with the Council, the Police Service and any other public agencies in resolving any complaints of anti-social behaviour in regards to the premises.

14.3 The Licence Holder must address problems of anti-social behaviour resulting from the occupiers or their visitors by following the procedure set out below:

- If a complaint is received, or anti-social behaviour is discovered, the Licence Holder must contact the relevant occupant within 14 days of receiving the complaint. The occupant must be informed in writing of the complaint made against them and of the consequences of its continuation.
- The Licence Holder must monitor any allegations of anti-social behaviour for a period of 28 days, from the date the complaint was received.
- If after 28 days, it is found that any of the anti-social behaviour is continuing the Licence Holder must visit the premises within 7 days and provide the occupant with a warning letter advising them of the possibility of eviction if the behaviour continues.
- If after 14 days of giving a warning letter, the occupant has not taken steps to address the anti-social behaviour and it is continuing, the Licence Holder shall take action, which may include legal eviction proceedings.
- The Licence Holder must ensure that written notes are kept of any meetings, telephone conversations or investigations regarding anti-social behaviour for 3 years, and if requested by the Council, provide this information within 28 days on demand.
- Any letters, relating to antisocial behaviour, sent or received by the Licence Holder must be kept for 3 years by the Licence Holder and if requested by the Council, provide copies of them within 28 days on demand.
- Where the Licence Holder or his agent has reason to believe that the antisocial behaviour involves criminal activity the Licence Holder shall inform the appropriate authorities within 7 days.

For the purpose of these licence conditions, anti-social behaviour means conduct on the part of occupiers of, or visitors to, residential premises (a) which causes, or is likely to cause, a nuisance or annoyance to persons residing, visiting or otherwise engaged in lawful activities in the vicinity of such premises; or (b) which involves or is likely to involve the use of such premises for illegal purposes.

15. Fire safety provisions

15.1 The Licence Holder must ensure the following:

- That if a written fire risk assessment has not been provided as part of the licence application process, and is required by The Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005, a written fire risk assessment is carried out in accordance with The Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 within 14 days of receipt of the licence. Any defects identified within the assessment must be rectified as soon as reasonably practicable. A copy of the assessment must be kept for the duration of the licence period and be provided to the Council within 14 days of demand;
- That any relevant information under the fire risk assessment is provided in writing to all occupants under s21A of The Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 within 14 days of the completion of the assessment, and prior to the commencement of any new period of occupation;
- That the premises is provided with a satisfactory means of escape from fire according to the size, layout and type of accommodation provided, and to ensure that any fire escape routes are kept clear and free from obstruction;
- That any fire detection or fire fighting equipment emergency lighting, or related signage is maintained in good condition at all times throughout the licence period.
- The licence holder must, if providing fire extinguishers of any type, ensure that all tenants, and any new tenants (as they arrive), are trained to use all types provided at periods not exceeding annually by a suitably accredited training contractor. Every fire extinguisher must be serviced annually and certified in proper working order. Every fire extinguisher must be serviced annually and certified in proper working order. Service certificates retained for 12 months and be provided to the Council within 14 days of demand.

16. Training

16.1 If demanded by the Council, the Licence Holder and manager(s) of the house must receive suitable training within a timeframe specified by the Council on the law and legal requirements relating to managing an HMO. Unless otherwise specified by the Council, this requirement can be satisfied in one of the following ways:

- by completion of the accreditation training of the National Residential Landlords Association (NRLA) and submitting the pass certificates to the Council for confirmation;
- By completion of other suitable training on the law and legal requirements relating to managing an HMO, subject to approval by the Council in advance and subject to submitting a pass certificate or similar document to the Council for confirmation;
- Or, if available, by attending the Council approved, one-day training course.

17. Tenant's deposit

- 17.1 The Licence Holder must ensure that any deposit taken under an assured tenancy or assured shorthold tenancy is protected by placing it in an authorised tenancy deposit scheme.
- 17.2 The tenant must be given the prescribed information about the scheme in writing prior to the commencement of the tenancy.
- 17.3 Written records of the deposit taken and scheme used must be retained for the full length of the tenant's occupation and for 5 months following the ending of their tenancy. These records must be provided to the Council within 14 days of demand.

18. Occupant's access to temperature controls

- 18.1 Licence Holder must ensure that occupants have unfettered access to heating and hot water controls at all times throughout the full period of their occupation. For the avoidance of doubt this includes access to the thermostat which must be sited in the common parts of the property

19. Environmental and neighbourhood management

- 19.1 The Licence Holder must ensure that the exterior of the house is maintained in a reasonable decorative order and in reasonable repair.
- 19.2 The Licence Holder must ensure that all outbuildings, yards, forecourts and gardens surrounding the house and alley ways within the property curtilage are maintained in reasonable repair. They must also be kept in a clean, tidy and safe condition, and free from infestations. Outbuildings are not to be used for living or sleeping accommodation without prior written consent from Uttlesford District Council. Outbuildings can still be used for storage.

20. 'Fit and proper' person requirements

20.1 The Licence Holder must ensure that any persons involved with the management of the house are to the best of their knowledge 'fit and proper persons' for the purposes of the Housing Act 2004.

20.2 The Licence Holder must inform the Private Sector Housing Team in writing within 14 days of any changes in circumstances as follows:

- Details of any unspent convictions not previously disclosed to the team that may be relevant to the licence holder and/or the property manager and their fit and proper person status and in particular any such conviction in respect of any offence involving fraud or dishonesty, or violence or drugs or any offence listed in Schedule 3 to the Sexual Offences Act 2003.
- Details of any finding by a court or tribunal against the Licence Holder and / or the manager that he/she has practiced unlawful discrimination on grounds of sex, colour, race, ethnic or national origin or disability in, or in connection with, the carrying on of any business.
- Details of any contravention on the part of the Licence Holder or manager of any provision of any enactment relating to housing, public health, environmental health or landlord and tenant law which led to civil or criminal proceedings resulting in a judgment or finding being made against him/her.
- Information about any property the Licence Holder or manager owns or manages or has owned or managed for which a local housing authority has refused to grant a licence under Part 2 or 3 of the Act or has revoked a licence in consequence of the Licence Holder breaching the conditions of his/her/their licence.
- Information about any property the Licence Holder or manager owns or manages or has owned or managed that has been the subject of an interim or final management order under the Housing Act 2004.
- If a Banning Order is in force or if a new Banning Order has been issued against the licence holder or anyone else bound by the terms and conditions of this licence.

21. Payment of rent

21.1 No person other than the Licence Holder or the agent named on the licence may collect and receive rental monies from the occupants of the property. The Licence Holder and/or agent may pass on the rental monies to any third parties as required.

21.2 Where rents are collected or received from occupants, the Licence Holder must ensure that the payment is recorded and that the occupants receive a receipt for the payment, unless the occupant is an assured shorthold tenant and pays their rent via bank standing order or direct debit. The Licence Holder must keep a copy of all such records and receipts throughout the full length of the individual's period of occupation and for 5 months afterwards, and must provide the Authority with a copy of the same within 14 days of any request to inspect them.

22. Absence

- 22.1 The Licence Holder is required to have in place suitable emergency and other management arrangements in their absence. The name and contact details of the Licence Holder and/or manager must be given to each occupier within 14 days of the issuance of the licence and must also be displayed in a prominent place within the property, accessible to all occupiers.
- 22.2 If the Licence Holder is no longer a resident in the UK, they must make alternate arrangements and propose a new licence holder. This will require the submission of a new application.

23. Council inspections

- 23.1 The Licence Holder must allow officers of the Council, or an agent acting on behalf of the Council, access to the licensed dwelling for the purpose of carrying out inspections at all reasonable times.
- 23.2 The Licence Holder must complete any identified remedial works in a satisfactory and timely manner as instructed by the Council, or an agent acting on behalf of the Council, within any timeframe specified following an inspection.

24. Pest control

- 24.1 Where the Licence Holder becomes aware of a potential pest problem or infestation at the property, they must take steps to ensure that a treatment program is carried out to ensure that the pest infestation is properly managed.
- 24.2 Records must be kept of such treatment programs throughout the full length of the licence period these must be provided to the Council within 14 days of demand.

25. Duty to Notify the Council

- 25.1 The licence holder shall notify the Council in writing if they have any change of address, contact telephone number and email address from that specified on the licence application form, within 21 days of the change of the relevant details.
- 25.2 The licence holder shall notify the Council in writing of any change in the ownership of the house or any part of it, within 21 days of the change of ownership.

26. Deficiencies

- 26.1 The Licence holder must ensure that any items listed in the attached Schedule (B), “Deficiencies”, must be rectified within the time scales specified in that schedule.

The Licence holder should note that any subsequent deficiencies found as a result of an inspection may result in enforcement action.
